

The role of the environment and community service sector

*Maximizing the role of the college in treating health problems in the community

1- Developing a study to monitor the needs of the community

2- Spreading health awareness among community members through awareness seminars

3- Preparing medical convoys

*Providing an infrastructure and technological environment that supports education and learning

1- Activating the infrastructure maintenance plan

2- Activating the role of the Crisis and Disasters Unit

3- Raising the capacity of classrooms and laboratories in the college

4- Preserving the environment within the college

5- Raising the efficiency of units with a special character to meet the requirements of the community